ORDER APPOINTING COMMISSIONER TO TAKE DEPOSITION

The Plaintiff in the above entitled matter, after having moved for the appointment of a commissioner to take the deposition of Mr. General Butler, 7802 Carano Way, Windsor, CA 95492, within sixty (60) days of the granting of this Motion at a mutually convenient location on any date or dates and times to which the taking of the deposition shall be postponed or continued before a certified court reporter and notary public, or other person authorized under the laws of the State of California to administer an oath.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Brenden P. Leydon or any other qualified attorney of Tooher Wocl & Leydon, LLC is hereby appointed as a commissioner to take the deposition of Mr. General Butler, on such date or any day or dates to which the taking of said deposition should be postponed or continued.

All counsel of records shall have the right to attend said deposition, in person or electronically, and cross-examine.

168.10

Said commissioner shall arrange to have said deposition transcribed by any court reporter or notary public authorized to transcribe depositions in the State of California.

The said commissioner or his representative shall arrange for administration of the oaths or affirmation to the aforesaid witness, and the said commissioner or representative shall attest same and certify whether or not said adverse party or his agent was present.

The said commissioner or his representative shall have all subpoena power to issue subpoenas or to arrange for the issuance of a subpoena in accordance with the laws of the State of California to compel the appearance of the deponent and the production of documents and tangible things enumerated in the Notice of Deposition.
