SUPERIOR COURT OF CONNECTICUT

JUDICIAL DISTRICT NEW LONDON AT NEW LONDON

Plaintiff AHEPA Management Company as managing agent for Ahepa 250-IV

v.

Defendant Susan Levy

Date: November 5, 2021

Motion to Seal

Motion Title

1. This eviction needs to disappear - it never should have happened. I need to resolve amicably so I can continue to live here.

2. I defended life everywhere and in every situation and I'm dealing with corruption. Genocide, I'm screaming bloody murder.

3. This is a CRIMINAL matter. I rejected the lies embedded in what property manager Michelle Desrochers and her Attorney David Carlson are alleging in paperwork served by a state marshal.

4. And I rejected the liars Michelle Desrochers and Attorney David Carlson.

5. I may be irreparably injured; only my doctors will be able to try and ascertain my current condition and whether I will die prematurely.

6. In addition to me, other tenants told me of their fears living here.

7. whatever protections exist to protect my privacy and reputation, I want. That means Seal, a court clerk Rohan said. That's what I need.

8. Protect my health. I cannot endure anymore, I told East Lyme police officer Watson. I was warmly embraced by a man in a Roman Catholic Church Holy Sacramental marriage and that is forever. Marriage is a vocation. I am a pro-life award-winning former Shore Line Newspaper Editor. I'm overwhelmed by what Property Manager Michelle Desrochers has done to me.

9. I need sworn testimony under threat of perjury before a Judge (and Jury if possible).
